

Cockpit (11x)

The diagram shows two components. The top component is a cockpit, represented by a long, thin, slightly curved shape with a pointed left end and a small notch on the right. The bottom component is a wing, represented by a large, irregular polygon with a horizontal top edge, a vertical right edge, a horizontal bottom edge, and a diagonal left edge connecting the top-left and bottom-right corners.

Aussenflügel (2x)